PKF O'Connor Davies Hires Gus Saliba as Partner

1/16/2017

New York, NY (January 16, 2017) – PKF O'Connor Davies, LLP, the nation's 26th largest accounting and advisory firm, announced today it has named Gus Saliba, CPA, a partner in the Firm's audit practice. Saliba brings over 25 years of public accounting experience in the not-for-profit sector with a specialty in educational organizations. Saliba's hire reinforces the Firm's ongoing commitment to recruiting industry-leading talent to serve the diverse needs of its expanding client base.

"Gus sets a high bar in the not-for-profit charter school space," said Kevin J. Keane, Managing Partner. "The depth of knowledge and range of expertise he brings to PKF O'Connor Davies is a strong addition to our robust audit practice. We're excited to have someone of Gus' caliber join us as we continually strive to deliver the highest level of value for our clients."

Prior to joining PKF O'Connor Davies, Saliba served as partner at an accounting and consulting firm in New York City where he worked with over 80 not-for-profit corporations on a range of accounting, auditing and advisory issues including audit planning, internal control reviews, developing budgets and forecasts and providing board education and governance advice. Saliba is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA) and currently serves on the New York State Education Department's Charter School Audit Guide Committee and on the board of the Tuxedo Park School.

"At a time when the audit and advisory space is becoming increasingly complex, PKF O'Connor Davies is doing more to help clients navigate regulatory nuances and thrive in the shifting landscape," said Saliba. "I'm excited to join a team that has the kind of passion and drive that exists at PKF O'Connor Davies. I'm ready to get started and do my part to position the firm's clients for success at every turn."

Saliba will be based at the Firm's headquarters in Harrison, N.Y.
